

EXPERTS DECLARE WOMAN WAS CRAZY

Scientific Testimony in Bradley Trial Goes Happily for Slayer of Senator Brown.

PHYSICIAN, EYE WITNESS, CALLS HER LOONEY

Washington, Nov. 26.—Two distinguished alienists testified today that Mrs. Annie Bradley was insane when she shot and killed former Senator Arthur M. Brown, of Utah. Both of these experts have national reputations and have figured prominently in many trials that have attracted widespread attention. They were Dr. Hill, of Baltimore, professor of the nervous and mental diseases at the Baltimore Medical college, and Dr. Britten D. Evans, of New York, a member of the board of directors of the New Jersey hospital for the insane. Dr. Evans was one of the experts who testified in the Thaw case in New York.

Both Dr. Hill and Dr. Evans were very positive that Mrs. Bradley was insane and could not distinguish right and wrong. Dr. Evans was very dramatic in his relation of the various facts which caused him to believe that Mrs. Bradley was insane. He was severe in characterizing the conduct of Senator Brown in performing criminal operations upon the defendant, which brought admonition from the court in the form of a suggestion that Senator Brown was not on trial and could not defend himself, and his name was only used when absolutely necessary to show his domination over the defendant.

THE DAY'S TESTIMONY.

Statements by Experts Make Strong Case for Mrs. Bradley.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The trial of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, charged with murdering former Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, was resumed today at 10:05 o'clock. The defense at once put on the stand a new witness, Dr. I. Rich, of New York city.

His testimony at first was regarded as of the highest importance, but as soon as it was shown that he was not an expert, less interest was attached to it. Dr. Rich testified that he was in Washington the day of the tragedy and stopped at the hotel where the shooting occurred. He saw Mrs. Bradley that day, and first observed her in the ladies' sitting room. That was about noon.

Woman Seemed Wild.

"Somebody rushed by me," he said, "I looked up and saw this lady (looking at Mrs. Bradley). She looked to be an intelligent woman, but said nothing to me. She bumped into first one person and then another. She had a peculiar drawn face, talked to herself, muttering and wringing her hands. I looked at her again and she changed expression. All of a sudden she began laughing. It was an idiotic laugh. I looked at her and she stopped laughing and appeared to cry and she went away."

"She made two or three trips in and out of the lobby before deciding to leave the hotel."

On cross examination witness said Mrs. Bradley appeared to him later to be "looney" and that she had an idiotic laugh.

Expert Testifies.

Dr. Chas. G. Hill, of Baltimore, was called in behalf of the defendant. He said he had been for twenty-five years a specialist in nervous diseases and is now professor of nervous and mental diseases of the Baltimore Medical college. The witness stated that he had heard the hypothetical question read yesterday and assuming that the statements made in it were correct, he had come to the conclusion that the person named in it was insane on the night of Dec. 8. "I do not," he said, "think that the party was capable of distinguishing between right and wrong at that time. I do not believe she was capable of controlling herself to avoid the wrong."

Cross examined by District Attorney Baker, he said he was influenced in that opinion because the hypothetical question described a very decided hereditary tendency to insanity.

Conditions to Induce Insanity.

"These conditions," he added, "always predispose mental weakness. One is not necessarily insane because an aunt was insane; but they are

DECLARES ANARCHY IS FOSTERED BY ROOSEVELT

Noted Clergyman Utters a Fierce Denunciation of the President.

New York, Nov. 26.—"President Roosevelt and the United States government are fostering anarchy," was the startling announcement made by Rev. Dr. Mitchell, at the annual meeting of the International Sabbath alliance, of which he is president. "Briefs have been prepared and sent to Washington and next week President Roosevelt and Secretary McCall will have to put themselves on record."

The denunciation of the president and the government is based on the fact that the sailors at League Island navy yard, near Philadelphia, were allowed to play baseball on Sunday in spite of the protests of the alliance.

SIEZED A THIEF WHO THREATENED HIS WIFE'S LIFE

Prominent Kalamazoo Business Man Slain Grappling With Burglar.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Nov. 26.—Horace S. Davis, aged 53, a prominent business man, was shot through the heart and killed by a burglar early today. Davis had grappled with the intruder when the latter threatened to kill Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Davis was awakened first and when she uttered an exclamation upon seeing the intruder, he pressed his revolver to her temple and commanded her to keep still or he would shoot. At this Mr. Davis jumped out of bed and wrestled with the burglar, the struggle taking them all over the room. Davis was getting the better of the man when the burglar fired twice, the first shot striking Davis in the wrist and the second passing through his heart, killing him instantly.

Mr. Davis was a thirty-second degree Mason and was the local agent for John Wanamaker.

FOUND HIS AFFINITY ON BOTTLE OF RED LIQUOR

Colonel Pursued Until He Located Original Only to Find Her Wife.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Col. Pink Marshall Hardesty, from a portion of the state of Kentucky to the jury unknown, came yesterday to Chicago to seek the owner of a face that had appeared to him from the label of a bottle that had contained a certain brand of rye whiskey.

The colonel found the face, but he also found that it was the property of another.

It appears that the colonel went into a saloon at Cincinnati, where he purchased a quart of whiskey. After disposing of the contents of the bottle he proceeded to inspect the label. In the center of the paper was the beautiful face of a young woman.

The face upon the bottle won the colonel's heart. He wrote to the distillers to find out who the model was whence had been taken this entrancing lithograph. The distillers told the colonel that they got the label in Chicago and gave him the name of the firm. The colonel took up the matter with the Chicago firm and found that it had in turn secured its photograph from an artist of this city.

The artist was the next step in the story of the face upon the bottle. He told the colonel that the picture was that of a friend and that he had given it to the firm making the labels.

Then it developed that Miss Bonnie Delarto, 1462 Roscoe street, was the original. The colonel went to that address and sought the girl. He found that she was the wife of Leo Burkart and that his dream of happiness was at an end. Between the two at the Great Northern hotel last night the colonel vowed that he would never buy any more bottled goods with pictures on the outside.

UNCLE JOE IS TORN BY DENTIST AND STATESMEN

Teeth and Committee for House Bothering the Speaker a Lot.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Speaker Cannon is dividing his time these days between his dentist and the members of the house who are seeking committee assignments. The afternoons are given to the members, but while he listens carefully to all of them, he has not so far made any promises.

The speaker is hopeful of completing his assignments before the Christmas holidays.

The fifty-ninth congress had been in session only seven days when the speaker's announcement was made, the time being the briefest ever taken by a speaker in filling the committees except in the forty-third congress, when only four days were required. In the fifty-eighth congress twenty-six days were required, but that congress convened early in November, leaving the speaker less time for preparation in advance of the meeting than he had in 1905 and will have this year.

Speaker Henderson took only eight days to form the committee for the fifty-seventh congress. The longest time taken in recent years for this necessary preliminary work of any congress was 131 days which Speaker Reed allowed to elapse before naming the committees for the fifty-fifth congress, the delay being due to the tariff fight of 1897. That congress met on March 15 and the committees were not organized until the latter part of the summer. There were several efforts on the part of democrats and populists to force earlier action, but the speaker held his ground and refused to make his selections until ready to do so.

In the forty-second congress Speaker Blaine consumed over nine months' time after the congress convened in selecting his committees and there was almost as much delay in the fortieth, when the fight against President Johnson was in progress.

KILLS SWEETHEART AND SELF.

Assistant Fire Chief at Waukegan is Crazed by Lovers' Quarrel.

CAR STRIKE RIOTERS FILL LOUISVILLE BASTILE

Score of Men Arrested for Disorder Raised in At- tacking Car.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 26.—Over twenty members of the striking Street Car Men's union are in the county jail here this morning having been arrested last night in the riot following an attack on a Fourth Avenue car. A number of the men are alleged to have confessed that the attack on the car was the result of a carefully planned conspiracy on the part of a body of strikers and more arrests will be made.

Both International Agent Commons and Local President Jackson of the Street Car Men's union, declare they did not know anything of the conspiracy and that they have all along counseled order.

Police Judge Wheeler McGhee this morning held over for hearing under $5,000 bond all those arrested on the charge of being implicated in last night's riot and he also ordered the arrest of forty-seven more men who attended the meeting at which the alleged plot was formed.

PRINCE VON BUELOW OPENS THE DIET OF PRUSSIA

Imperial Chancellor Reads Speech from Throne in Emperor's Absence.

Berlin, Nov. 26.—The Prussian diet opened today in the white hall of the palace. Prince Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, in the emperor's absence, read the speech from the throne. It stated that the growth of permanent expenditures had increased the budget by over $25,000,000.

The chancellor said that a deficit is expected in the current year, owing to the increased expenses in the railroad administration and that the government would have to resort to a loan for extending the railroad system, building new roads, double tracking of old lines, and for additional rolling stock.

The speech foreshadows a bill authorizing the government to acquire Polish estates by condemnation proceedings under the law of eminent domain. This measure, which was actively discussed some months ago, is expected to reopen in an acute form the Polish question in the diet. The government's project has been criticised by even the leading conservative organs. The speech from the throne expresses the government's conviction that both houses of the diet will give active co-operation in the settling of this "grave national question."

SALOON CASE FAILS THROUGH FAULTY DRAFTING

Judge O'Rourke Instructs Jury to Acquit Henry Hockemeyer.

Under instructions from Judge Edward O'Rourke in the circuit court this afternoon the jury sworn to try Henry Hockemeyer on the charge of permitting others than members of his family in his saloon on Sunday, July 21, returned a verdict of not guilty because the indictment was faulty in its drafting.

The fight on the technicality that finally defeated the indictment began this morning when the state rested after having shown that Ray Woodhull, Dr. M. A. Mason, William Wayne and a number of other members of the Good Citizens league were in the saloon on the day in question and that they knew of the presence of each other and conversed among themselves at the time.

When this evidence had been brought out W. E. Leonard and John W. Eggeman, representing Henry Hockemeyer, filed a written motion asking that the jury be required to return a verdict of acquittal as there was a total and fatal variance between the allegations of the indictment and the proof submitted by the state.

The motion indicated that the indictment charged that there were persons in the saloon who were named in the indictment as John Doe and Richard Roe, with the further allegations that their true names were unknown to the grand jurors. In the evidence it was shown that the names of seven persons who were in the saloon had been given to the jury and that the allegation that the true names were unknown was not true.

Authorities and Arguments.

John W. Eggeman argued the motion and produced a number of authorities on the point going to show that it is absolutely necessary to make an indictment good that the name of at least one person, if such person is known to the grand jury, be inserted in the charge to conform with the requirements of the statute.

Attorney Henry Colerick, who was employed to assist Prosecutor Dan B. Nindie in the prosecution of the case, took the ground that it was not a material point to show the names in the indictment, as the fact that Mr. Hockemeyer opened his saloon and kept it open all day on the Sunday in question is in itself a complete offense and that if the state would undertake to give the name of each and every person that entered the place it could produce forty indictments for one day.

The arguments were closed shortly after the noon hour and Judge O'Rourke took the time intervening between the morning and afternoon sessions to look over the rulings on the question and after a lengthy review he decided that the point was well taken and the jury was ordered to return a verdict of not guilty.

Only Few of Kind.

Prosecutor Dan B. Nindie stated that there are only a few of the indictments against saloonkeepers that will be affected by the ruling and that most of them will stand the test. He will continue, he said, to try them as long as he is in office and does not feel discouraged by his ill luck in the two cases.

WAS IN CONSPIRACY TO SAVE LIFE OF MARCUM

Witness Feltner Testifies in Another of Kentucky Feud Trials.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 26.—When the trial of Dr. Fulton French was resumed at Beattyville today, Mose Feltner, of Hamilton, Ohio, declared he was present at several conferences between James Hargis, Ed Callahan, John Smith, John Abner and French, during which the murder of James B. Marcum was discussed. Feltner said he was employed by Hargis, Callahan and French to assassinate Marcum and that he agreed, because he had thought that so long as he was employed no one else would be and that he could warn Marcum and thus save his life. Feltner declared he did this on numerous occasions because of friendship for Marcum. Smith, who at the trial in August, 1906, was the defendant in the case, testified for the commonwealth yesterday, admitting that he was in the "rock quarry" where Mrs. Johnson, sister of Marcum, stated that she saw him, John Abner and others and that he was with Hargis, Callahan, French and Abner in Hargis' office several times planning how they could kill Marcum, corroborating Mose Feltner and Asbury Spicer as to the plans being laid to kill Marcum in the Hargis office. The prosecution expects to close its case tonight.

Oakland, Cal., Man Murdered Wife and Almost Consumed Body With Quicklime as Police Find Out.

VICTIM'S FRIEND'S VISION FIRST CLEW

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—The police of Oakland yesterday unearthed a most diabolical crime and have taken into custody M. A. Wilkins, a stationery engineer and will charge him with the murder of his wife, whose remains were found buried in quicklime underneath a shed in the yard of the Wilkins home in Elmhurst, a suburb of Oakland.

Mrs. Wilkins had not been seen around her home by the neighbors for several days. It was known that she had given birth to a child and inquiries regarding her whereabouts by the neighbors elicited the response from Wilkins that she had gone to the home of her parents in the east.

Woman's Dream Proves True.

A friend of the woman, Mrs. J. M. Anderson, of San Francisco, had been staying at the Wilkins home during the past few days and now asserts that Wilkins had endeavored to induce her to leave her husband and go away with him. Her suspicions became aroused, and the night before, in a dream, she saw the body of her former friend lying on the ground with the arms crossed over the breast. She came to San Francisco and told her husband of the strange incident and the two went to the chief of police of Oakland and told the story. The case was given into the hands of Sheriff Barnett, of Alameda county, and with Detective Kyle, of Oakland, he went to the home of the Wilkins in Elmhurst and found the body in a trench under an old carpet in the shed. It was lying just as described by Mrs. Anderson, with the hands folded across the breast.

Wilkins was taken into custody later and after being taken to the Alameda county jail he at first said that his wife had committed suicide. Later he said that she had died during childbirth and that he had buried the body under the shed to save expenses. He told several different stories and at last refused to talk further.

Sought Mrs. Anderson's Life.

Mrs. Anderson told the officers that she was awakened from the dream by Wilkins, who was standing over her with a knife in his hand. When she asked what he meant he replied that she had been talking wildly in her sleep. He put away the knife and asked her to take a drink of water. She sipped some of the water, but did not swallow it, suspecting that it had been poisoned. This proved to be the fact.

Wilkins is fifty years of age and has always borne a good reputation. He is employed by the firm of C. C. Moore, of San Francisco. He came here with his wife from York, Penn., and claims to have a son in Cincinnati. He is a member of the National Association of Stationary Engineers.

SIGNATURES ON THE WALSH NOTES ARE REPUDIATED

Witnesses Declare Names Were Used Without Knowledge.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Further denials of having authorized the use of their names on the $92,000 memorandum notes alleged to have been part of the system used for the diversion of funds of the Chicago National bank were made by witnesses in the trial of John R. Walsh today. Ten men whose names have been shown to have appeared on the notes were examined and each testified that he had not signed or authorized the signing of his name to any of the notes.

Upon resumption of the cross-examination of F. W. McLean, former assistant cashier of the Chicago National bank, Walsh's attorney drew from the witness an admission that he was mistaken in testimony which he gave last week concerning notes drawn between January 17 and April 1 of 1904. During that period, he said today, he was in California and notes made during that time were not made by him, as his former testimony indicated.

Miss Jessie Clark who is attending Jennings seminary at Aurora, Ill., is expected home to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents.

OLD MAN WESTON IS TOO MUCH FOR HORSES

Wears Out Team That Goes Along—Change in Plan for Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Edward Payson Weston started on the last stage of his record breaking journey from Portland Maine, at 11 o'clock this forenoon. At that hour he set out from Chesterton, Ind., where he had passed the morning hours in resting and according to his present plans which differ somewhat from those based on his accomplishment of yesterday when he crossed practically the whole state of Indiana in a little over twenty-four hours, he will arrive at the Chicago Beach hotel, seven miles south from the center of the city, at midnight. There he will rest again, completing the walk to the Chicago postoffice, where the trip will end, before noon tomorrow.

The last miles of the journey which brought Weston to Chesterton, were negotiated at a pace which proved the veteran pedestrian superior in endurance to horses. A team which accompanied Weston from South Bend, where he arrived shortly before noon yesterday gave out after it had followed the walker for fifty miles. The animals stumbled in the road and they could not be induced to proceed further until they had been fed and allowed to rest in a nearby livery stable. Men in an automobile who accompanied Weston, fared nearly as badly as the horses. They too were exhausted as the result of exposure to the cold, while Weston seeming to feel but little the great strain of the effort he was making, strode along at an easy gait, conversing at times with newspaper reporters and others who walked beside him.

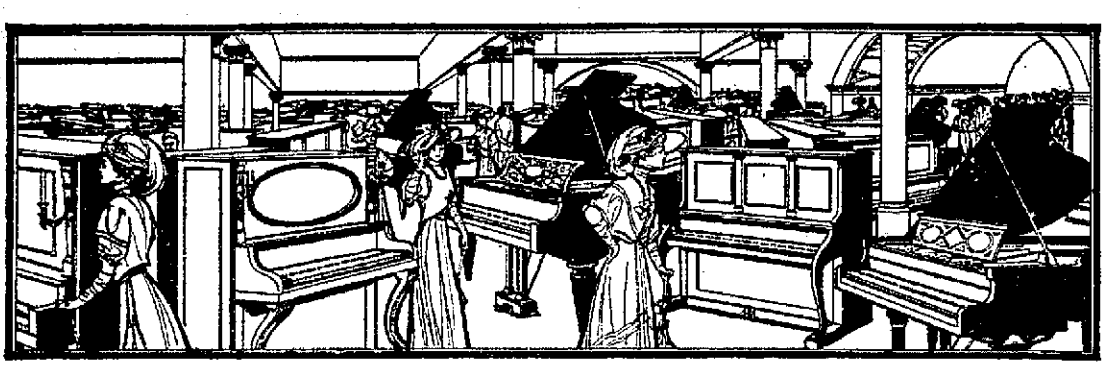

MORTALLY SHOT WOMAN WITH WHOM HE RAN AWAY

Youth in Cleveland Fired Three Times—Then Shot Himself.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Ida Walker, 22 years old, was shot three times today by Herbert Freund, and was probably fatally wounded. Freund, who is but twenty years old, then fired two shots at himself. He will recover. Freund was arrested. Recently the couple eloped from Leighton, Pa., where Mrs. Walker deserted her husband and two children. Jealousy on the part of Freund led to the shooting.

Among the students attending Purdue, who will come home to spend Thanksgiving, are Charles Pask, Herbert Covardale, Harry Clark, Harry Wonger and Willard Stockbridge.

more liable to be insane than another person who has not such a hereditary taint. Added to that, the conditions existing for several years previous to this tended to unbalance her mind. She had many anxieties and many disappointments. In treating the insane nothing is more liable to create mental disorder than intense emotion, especially when associated with many disappointments, as in this instance. Add to that another condition that is the effect of her treatment on the occasions of frequent abortions. During these abortions the condition of sepsis, which means that poison is in the blood, existed and that induces mental aberration. My conclusion is formed because of all of these conditions.

Dr. Hill believed that Mrs. Bradley shot Senator Brown intentionally, but in her aberration she believed that she was doing right. A person in such a frame of mind, will, he said, consider the wrong thing is the right thing.

As far as he could judge she was insane in the winter of 1906, there having been some mental disturbances in December, 1905. At her premature birth several months before her act there was no evidence of insanity, but there was great mental disturbance.

Dr. Hill reiterated his statement that Mrs. Bradley, on December 8, was insane and said that she was still insane two days afterward, when upon being interviewed she sprang from her cot at the mention of the name of Mrs. Adams and covered up her head.

Dr. Hill said Mrs. Bradley was suffering from toxic insanity as early as December, 1905, and he believed it was continued until she shot Senator Brown.

"If this was a continuing insanity it would be apt to continue on, would it not?" witness was asked.

He said that conditions might cause this toxic insanity to disappear. There are times, he said, when the toxins are thrown off.

Some forms of toxic insanity, he said, do not produce hallucinations; it frequently happens that melancholia only is the result.

Mr. Baker prompted by Drs. Jeffrey and Brush, went at great length into the subject of insanity caused by toxic poisoning. He said cocaine, morphine, delirium of typhoid and pneumonia would cause insanity. Some forms of toxins, he said, produced melancholia while others developed hallucinations.

Insane Sometimes Write Well.

He was shown letters written six months before the tragedy by the defendant and agreed with the district attorney that the letters were well written and that the handwriting was good.

"But," he added, "some insane people can write a better letter than I can."

He found some confusion in one of the letters and said that might have been the result of toxic insanity, but he said the letters did not necessarily show any insanity.

The district attorney placed before the witness scraps of letters that had been found in a waste paper basket at the hotel and had been put together so that they could be read. He found no evidence of toxic insanity, but the evidence of some words and insertion of others indicated mental confusion. The tearing up of the letters showed mental confusion, as it indicated an understanding of purpose.

State's Hypothetical Question.

Asked by District Attorney Baker the hypothetical question if a person of intelligence has a private grievance against another, travels to where that person is and before starting would make the statement that she was going to kill that person and after the killing would make a statement that she had done what she intended to do, would that person be sane or insane, Dr. Hill said she would be perfectly sane provided there was nothing unusual in the individual. He then described again Mrs. Bradley's state of mind for some time previous to and on the day of the shooting.

Expert of Thaw Trial Called.

Dr. Britton D. Evans, of New York, director of the New Jersey hospital for the insane, was then placed on the stand by the defense. Dr. Evans testified in the Thaw case to the effect that Thaw was insane when he shot Stanford White in New York. He gave the names of many medical institutions and societies with which he has been connected. When Judge Powers stated the hypothetical question to Dr. Evans he replied, referring to the time Mrs. Bradley shot Senator Brown:

"I am of the opinion she was insane; she was not able to distinguish between right and wrong and was not able to avoid the wrong and choose the right as a sane person does."

Dr. Evans' recital of the reasons which led him to reach his conclusion was dramatic in the extreme. He spoke with a feeling of the utmost sympathy for the defendant. A death-like silence pervaded the court, his remarks being uttered in such a way as to appeal to the emotions of all present. He spoke of the hereditary taint in Mrs. Bradley's family; the blow on her head when she was a girl; her attack of smallpox and pneumonia; her unhappy married life; the domination of Senator Brown over her; and finally his complete possession of her. Referring to the several abortions which Mrs. Bradley had undergone, Dr. Evans, speaking of Brown, said:

Dr. Evans grows dramatic. "And then after all this that man, by his own hand, destroyed the child he had begotten, poisoning the circulation of this woman, or introducing germs of infection into the body of the woman he had sworn to love, protect and care for." He then spoke of postponed promises of marriage and finally casting Mrs. Bradley adrift.

"We see him," referring to Senator Brown in dramatic tones, "taking every principle of society and motherhood—"

At this point counsel for the government objected.

"Remember," remarked the court, "that we are not trying Mr. Brown. He is not here to defend himself. We are not to characterize his conduct any further than it may have affected her mind. I think your last expressions are open to objection."

"These principles," continued Dr. Evans, after the court's admonition as to the extent that he could involve the name of Senator Brown, "affect the mind of a woman who aspires to be a mother and a wife and when such conditions exist they are apt to upset the mental balance more than any other force that was brought into action. It is a recognized fact that she had this disappointment and in addition that she had a positive infection and loss of blood time and time again."

"It is well recognized that a loss of blood or anemia upsets the mind. She was subjected to the effect of toxic agencies and going to the room of this man and seeing the letters that showed he had violated all obligations he had made to her, her mind could not stand the strain."

"What weight do you give to the intention she formed to shoot?"

"I give this weight; the intention may be sane or insane. The insane person may have intentions and carry them into execution. But these intentions have their basis in an abnormal brain or mind."

"Do you believe that the insane are capable of planning and carrying plans into execution?"

"They do that. They deliberate, plan and carry out their intentions. The intentions are laid in an insane mind. That does not in any sense affect the fact that insanity existed."

After Dr. Evans left the stand, Judge Powers read the letters which Mrs. Bradley tore up and which were pasted together by the postoffice department. They were filled with protestations of love and devotion to Senator Brown, and certain passages caused the defendant to weep. It was manifest that she was struggling with herself to keep from crying aloud. Between tears and suppressed sobs she nervously clenched her hands, her whole frame shook and only the high arms of her chair kept her from toppling over. As on former occasions she gathered herself together, but was the picture of abject despair.

A DYING WOMAN PLEADS POLICE TO SPARE HUSBAND

The Fiend Had Smashed Her Skull and She Dragged to Street to Plead.

New York, Nov. 26.—Suffering from a blow with a hatchet, which the physicians say fractured her skull, delivered it is claimed, by her husband, Mrs. Murray tottered through the streets ten blocks to the police station, behind the officer who had arrested her husband, a coal cart driver, and pleaded with the lieutenant at the station not to lock him up. When her plea was denied she collapsed and was taken to a hospital. The surgeons say that she cannot recover.

R. T. GUNN COMES TO SUCCEED J. B. CRAWFORD.

ernoon for the east. General Manager Emmmons and Mr. Crawford, who have been at Lexington for several days, returned with Mr. Jones.

For several days there has been pronounced rumors of a change which would take Mr. Crawford to another place with the company, but the report has never been confirmed by local officials of the company, and the transfer was not made public until Mr. Jones gave out the news this afternoon. It amounts to an exchange of places by Mr. Crawford and Mr. Gunn, and the Fort Wayne man will be in general charge of not only the city lines in Lexington, but the inter-urban system radiating from that point as well. Mr. Crawford came from Connecticut in February last to take a place with the Fort Wayne company and has made many friends here. His successor, Mr. Gunn, is a traction man of much experience, who will arrive in the city next week to begin his duties in charge of the transportation department of the big traction syndicate.

WHIRL AT MEAT ORDINANCE.

Measure Will Come Up Tonight on Committee of Whole Report.

The meat ordinance that has been before the city council for several months will come before the body again tonight in event enough of the members can be persuaded to affix their signatures to the report. It has been amended and is believed to be in shape for passage, although there is a likelihood that the retail grocers will make another fight through Attorney C. M. Niezer.

The committee on fees and salaries has approved the ordinance raising the salaries of the police patrolmen, clerks and patrol drivers, the sanitary policeman and the city hall janitor. It is probable that three appropriations ordinances made necessary by the invalidation of three items in the general appropriations ordinance will be introduced at the council meeting. The council will have but two more meetings this year, and as the last falls upon Christmas eve, it will likely not be held.

SLASHES HIS THROAT.

Former Banker Under Indictment Attempts Suicide.

New York, Nov. 26.—Howard Maxwell, former president of the Borough bank, of Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor at his home in Brooklyn today. He was taken to a hospital and is expected to die.

Maxwell was indicted on charges of larceny and forgery.

BOUGHT TEXAS LAND.

They were gone only a week, but were so favorably impressed with the country that each purchased 320 acres of land near Ft. Worth, a new town just building there.

TRIMMED OFF SHOVELS.

Laborers at Bedford Retailers for Wage Reduction.

Bedford, Ind., Nov. 26.—On account of the financial crisis one hundred foreign laborers who used the pick and shovel at the Hoover quarry had their wages cut from 15 cents to 12 1/2 cents an hour. The angry men marched to the machine shops and had 2 1/2 inches cut from their shovels to meet the corresponding reduction in wages. They say short money short shovels.

LOST MONEY AND TICKET.

Lena Martin, of Marion, applied to the township trustee today for transportation to her home. She said she came here to visit relatives and did not find them and that she lost her pocketbook containing $4 and her return ticket.

THE VERY FIRST SIGNS ARE ALWAYS IN THE BACK

Bright's Disease is Spreading and It's Best Not to Neglect Danger Signals.

Take care of backache. A great many cases of kidney complaint are reported about here, also bladder trouble and rheumatism.

An authority once stated that pain in the back, loins or region of the kidneys is the danger signal nature hangs out to notify the sufferer that there is something wrong with the kidneys, which should receive immediate attention. Only vegetable treatment should be administered and absolutely no strongly alcoholic patent medicines, which are harmful to the kidneys and bladder.

The following prescription, while simple, harmless and inexpensive, is known and recognized as a sovereign remedy for kidney complaint. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This preparation is said to restore the natural function of the kidneys, so they will sift and strain the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood. Backache will be relieved, the urine will be neutralized and cleared and no longer a cause of irritation, thereby overcoming such symptoms as weak bladder, painful, frequent and other urinary difficulties.

This is worth trying and may prove just what many people here need.

MAY LOSE CHARTERS IF GAMING IS PROVEN

Judge Roby Writes Opinion Reversing French Lick Cases.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 26.—The French Lick Springs hotel and the West Baden hotel cases were reversed by the appellate court today. Judge Roby wrote the opinion.

The appeals were from judgments by which Judge Buskirk held the complaints of Willard H. Voyles, prosecuting attorney, asking a forfeiture of the hotel companies' charters to be insufficient Judge Roby said:

"The averments of the pleading show that as a part of its enterprise appellee constructed or acquired a large building called a casino, to which men, women and children had free access, and in which gambling in many forms was systematically conducted."

"It is averred, both generally and specifically, that the general law was habitually and perniciously violated; that the resort has been widely advertised through the United States as a place where gamblers may be lavishly entertained and engage in their unlawful practices without fear of molestation and that the local authorities are unable to enforce the law."

"The state does not charter corporations to commit crimes. The institution of a proceeding on the relation of the prosecuting attorney puts it within the power of the state to enforce the duty owing to it by its creature and to forfeit franchises for acts which in many instances are not punishable by indictment."

"The prosecuting attorney was a proper relator, and the judgment is therefore reversed and the case is remanded with instructions to overrule the demurrer and for further proceedings not inconsistent herewith."

TODAY'S MARKET.

The receipts on everything in the Fort Wayne and Barr street market today were good, but poultry were unusually heavy, there being as many as 4,000 turkeys and 5,000 ducks brought in by the farmers. The chicken receipts were not quite so heavy, but a local merchant stated that today's poultry market was the largest he had seen since he had been in business. This great abundance, however, did not seem to affect the prices any as they remained about the same. The receipts on butter and eggs were comparatively light with the prices steady as quoted.

ENFORCING THE LAW.

The Chicago city council in taking a hand in the fight for and against enforcement of the Sunday saloon laws in that city has adopted resolutions urging that the strike be settled by taking a popular vote on the issue.

The authorities charged with execution of the law to be guided by the result. This simply means that the people of Chicago are asked to formally determine by ballot whether they will be lawless or not. To this Arthur Burrage Farwell, president of the law and order league, who is leading the crusade against saloons and directing the work of procuring evidence of the violation of the laws, makes a pointed and timely reply which thoroughly covers the whole field of the controversy. He says:

"The time has passed in Illinois when the executive officers can pick out the laws they are going to enforce. The only thing for Chicago to do now is to enforce the law it now has in regard to saloons—enforce it. The idea of having to vote on the question whether a law should be enforced or not is absurd. It is the business of the mayor and the council of this city to see that the Sunday closing law written on our state statute as plain as day-light should be carried out without the delay of another day. This law they talk of voting on is a state law. Chicago is not the state of Illinois. The city must obey the state. It cannot secede. This measure is a temporizing measure purely—whether a sign of weakness or fear on the part of the liquor dealers I will not say. This thing has gone on too long. The fight is on."

What more is there to be said? The laws are there and in common with other laws are designed in letter and spirit to promote and conserve the good order of society and the security of life and property. Government is the execution of those rules of action which wisdom and experience have purposed for the benefit and welfare of the state, the people. Suspension of the laws by any means not vouchsafed by the organic instruments of government is anarchy and nothing else. Yet this is just what the liquor interests and their supporters propose in Chicago, and for that matter in Fort Wayne.

Incredibly, amazement and perhaps other feelings and emotions were the experience of administration officials in Washington following the attack made by Representative Fowler, of New Jersey, on President Roosevelt and Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou, which was published broadcast Sunday. Mr. Fowler was chairman of the house committee on banking and currency in the last and several previous sessions of congress, and it has been on the program to appoint him to the same chairmanship in the new congress. That he has come out so strongly against the administration and its plans for the relief of the financial situation indicates that the administration, if it has any definite suggestions for currency reform, must look to some other spokesman in congress. It also indicates that Mr. Fowler will oppose any plan other than his own for meeting conditions that will be discussed in the annual message, now being printed. Mr. Fowler's declarations that the financial crisis already has passed and that the administration injected its plan for relief at a time when the necessity for it had passed is regarded here as a serious charge. It will have the moral effect of placing the administration on the defensive with its own party. Already the democrats, it is said, are preparing a carefully arranged attack, which will blame the administration for bringing the treasury into a condition where in time of peace it had to issue $150,000,000 worth of bonds to get money to run the government.

Miss Mar the actress witness in the Gould-Gould scandal, says that Col. Buffalo Bill Cody was afraid, when maintaining friendly relations with Mrs. Gould while she was yet Miss Clemmons, that the lovely lady would poison him. The colonel made the same charge against the wife of his bosom in the once celebrated, but compromised and now almost forgotten airing the pair gave themselves in court a year or two ago. The great plainsman's vitals seem to have a strange affinity for strychnine and other unpleasant things.

The fact that freight accommodation on outgoing steamers from New York is restricted and embarrassed by the crowds of steerage passengers that have to be provided for reveals a novel and interesting phase of the immigration situation. Nearly 2,500 went out on a single steamer last week and the total migration for the week was estimated at 25,000 to 30,000. As an average weekly rate for a year this would make the emigration tide exceed that of immigration in any year yet, but of course the movement is a temporary one. Many of these passengers will return in the spring and most of them will return when the times are better for the employment of labor, but the incident, shows that the tide of immigration is not all one way. Labor as well as capital is subject to the law of supply and demand, and while it is not so easily transferred from one country to another, the time has come when it moves with considerable freedom between the United States and Europe.

Under the heading "Holding Back the Truth," an article in the American Economist, organ of the American Protective Tariff league, charges the state department with suppressing the truth about the new commercial agreement with Germany. The league has extensively criticised the agreement as a recognition of undervaluation practices prevailing for years to the disadvantage of American industries.

Edward Peyson Weston will win his contest with himself and achieve a loud renown in the land, but there doesn't seem to be much else to achieve from his long, sometimes dusty and sometimes damp drill from Maine to Cook county unless he takes to the Lyceum platform and tells lethargic folk the good there is in walking a lot. Which, of course, will not be approved by automobile builders.

New York woman is preparing to take a hard sweat at her affinity in a court for damages in a breach of promise suit because on second thought he has decided to cleave unto the wife of his marriage certificate. Is a rather scurry throw-down for the female factor of the affinity arrangement. The perdy of some men is quite beyond belief.

Democratic politics expert in Washington declares all this newspaper mush about anti-Bryan talk is unadulterated bosh. All of it? Would like two or three well mated words to describe that speech of Maj. Gus Menzies at Tom Taggart's pink tea the other night.

Plenty of talk in stand-pat circles of currency reform, but nary cheep of tariff reform, which of itself would be also a first-rate article of currency reform.

ORGANIZE RACING CLUBS.

St. Mary's Athletics in New Mode of Training.

The St. Mary's Athletic association are contemplating organizing a number of running clubs, for the purpose of getting and keeping into shape, members of their basket ball and other athletic teams. Two five men teams have already been organized and one race run, with results as stated in one of the other papers. The next race will be run the fore part of next week between teams composed of Albert Luley, leader, Albert Stier, Gregory Schramm, Arthur Meyers and Julian Alter on one side and Oscar Ankenbruck, leader, Charles Brink, Louis Schwartz, Joseph Schwartz and Fred Berghoff on the other, and the route of about four miles which they will cover will start at the club rooms, east on Washington street to Walton avenue, north on Walton avenue to the dyke in Lakeside, along the dyke, through Lakeside, then down Columbia avenue to Lafayette street, then south to the club rooms, one club taking the route as stated above, while the other will cover the same ground, but taking Lafayette street east to Columbia avenue, through Lakeside to the dyke, along the dyke to Walton avenue, south to Washington street, then west to the club rooms. This new mode of exercise is creating great interest among the athletes and it is expected that great benefit will be derived from the races.

MORE COAL COMING NOW.

Relief in Sight for Threatened Shortage Here.

Fort Wayne dealers do not expect a shortage in hard coal, and the situation a week ago when five or six of the dealers were without anthracite coal has been relieved by the arrival of considerable shipments and much more is on the way. It is explained that within the past few weeks the greater part of the products of the anthracite mines has been hurried to the northwest by water in anticipation of the early closing of navigation, and there was a rush to get as much coal as possible over before the lakes became impassable for vessels. Had intense cold come a week or two ago, it would have found a number of Fort Wayne dealers with little hard coal on hand, though the supply of soft coal has been ample from the first.

Invitations are out for the Piouette reception, which will be held at the Fox parlors next Wednesday evening.

Yesterday morning about 1 o'clock the first snow of the season fell, and enough of it to make sleighing fairly good.

Mart Ankenbruck, at the Bass foundry, fell with a ladle full of molten metal and narrowly escaped being dangerously burned.

The three Presbyterian churches will hold union services Thanksgiving day in the Second Presbyterian church and the sermon will be preached by Rev. S. F. Marks.

John Daly, the well known fireman, is also a glazier and can see a broken pane of glass four blocks away and around a corner. John is an artist as well as a good fellow, and has lots of work.

A branch mission of St. Paul's Lutheran school is nearly ready for occupancy. The school building is being conducted in Hanna's grove in the south part of the city. It will be used for church purposes.

Mr. Louis Schroeder, the well known and popular young druggist, will be the official scorer in this city for the Northwestern base ball league. Mr. Schroeder made an enviable record last year as a careful scorer.

The Arion society held its regular monthly meeting yesterday, at which officers were elected as follows: President, Christ Wanninghoff, vice president, A. Foster, secretary, John Giesner, financial secretary, Jacob Waller, trustees, Emil Haberkorn, S. Beverforden, William Hollenbeck.

Young Jackson, of the telephone exchange, won $10 the other night. It appears that there is a young lady in Huntington who can wag her tongue for hours at a time without tiring. Some of the boys spoke of Jackson as a talker and he buzzed the damsel from 7 o'clock until midnight, one night last week, and won $10.

SENATORS CAST LOTS TO SETTLE A PIE DISTRIBUTION

President Adopts Plan to End War Between Gamble and Kittredge.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The newest method of dispensing federal patronage was exemplified by President Roosevelt yesterday. There is nothing complex or intricate in the process, which consists in the simple expedient of drawing lots or tossing a coin.

Senators Gamble and Kittredge, both of South Dakota, have been at swords' points politically for a long time. They are republicans, but each has sought to eliminate the other from the stage of politics with the result that while both still are in the senate all federal appointments have been tied up.

President's Joke Bears Fruit.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Senators Gamble and Kittredge met in the president's office. Neither knew the other was to be there. That was part of Mr. Roosevelt's little scheme. He had written a letter to each senator asking him to be at the white house at the hour named.

"Now, gentlemen," said Mr. Roosevelt, when the greetings were over, "I trust you have left your guns at home. If you have not, please deposit them on my desk."

Mr. Gamble started and entered a disclaimer. Mr. Kittredge swiftly took his hands out of his pockets and smiled. Mr. Kittredge always smiles.

Easy Way Out of Turmoil.

The president said other things. While he talked he was doing something with his hands just beneath the top of his desk. Senator Kittredge, who occupied the position of vantage, never took his eyes from those busy hands. Suddenly Mr. Roosevelt held up his two closed fists.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I have determined upon a simple method of settling your differences. In one hand I hold a long piece of paper. In the other I hold a short piece of paper. Whoever draws the long piece of paper shall have first choice in the appointment of public land officers in South Dakota. There are eleven of these officers to be appointed. The one who draws the long piece of paper shall name six and the other senator may name five."

The president waved his closed fists in the air.

"I will give you first choice, Senator Kittredge," he said.

Kittredge Wins First Prize.

The president slowly opened the hand indicated. A strip of white paper lay upon his palm. Then he opened his right hand. The slip of paper that lay upon the right palm was shorter than the other slip.

"You win, Senator Kittredge," he said.

Senator Kittredge smiled. Senator Gamble smiled, too, but it was not a merry smile.

"The next number on the program," resumed the president, "is the selection of two Indian agents."

Senator Kittredge watched the presidential digits out of the corner of his eye.

"You guess again, Kittredge," said Mr. Roosevelt, as he brought his closed fists into view.

"No, it is Senator Gamble who is left," cried the president.

Vacancies Vanish Fast.

And so it went. Senator Kittredge won an auditor of the interior department and a bank examiner, while Senator Gamble played the long slip for an internal revenue collector and a district attorney.

The honors, however, were with Mr. Kittredge, and he names the majority of South Dakota federal appointees.

BANDITS LOOT BANK IN ILLINOIS BUT LOSE THEIR BOOTY

Bold Job Succeeds by Locking Officials in the Bank Vault.

Clinton, Ill., Nov. 26.—Two robbers looted the State Bank of Clinton yesterday afternoon of $2,200 in gold and silver coin, overlooked a much greater treasure in bills and finally, through their daring, lost $1,500 of the money they had stolen and barely escaped falling into the hands of the police.

The bank had been closed for the day, and William Argo, its president, Cashier L. R. Murphy and Bookkeeper John Young were counting up the cash. Already the paper money had been placed in the vault and only the gold and silver coins remained on the counter when the two bandits entered through a rear door.

The robbers forced the bank officials to hold up their hands and then marched them to the big vault wherein many thousands of dollars were stored. This they were compelled to enter and the bandits shut the door, which effectually barred them from the treasure.

They then went to the counter, scooped the gold and silver into a suitcase and calmly walked back to the Henlon hotel, where they had previously engaged a room. There they called up the telephone operator and asked her to send around a man to free some of the bank officials who accidentally had been locked in a vault, after which they proceeded to their room and started to arrange the coins in rolls for convenience in carrying.

Meanwhile the telephone operator had found Charles Parker, collector for the bank, and the only man not in captivity who knew the combination. He released the imprisoned officials just in time to save them from suffocation and was told of the robbery.

Through the phone operator the call was traced to the hotel and the police went there. Instead, however, of surrounding the place, they went to the room of the bandits and knocked. The robbers jumped out of a window, carrying the gold with them, but left $1,500 in silver lying on a table. They were traced to an interurban car, but there the trail was lost. Police all over the central part of the state have been warned to look out for the bandits.

POVERTY DRIVES AUTHOR AND WIFE TO END THEIR LIVES

Struggle Against Adversity Too Much and They Leap Into the Thames.

London, Nov. 26.—Another story reflecting the bitter struggle in existence in a section of the literary and artistic life here came to light yesterday with the discovery in the Thames of the bodies of Alexander Good and wife. Both were authors and the latter also a painter of considerable talent, who tied themselves together and jumped into the river after losing hope in the battle against big odds. Carefully incased in waterproof paper in the garments of both were found letters as yet unopened and addressed to the coroner.

The couple disappeared from the cheap lodgings to which they had been reduced on Nov. 2, leaving their last pennies for the landlady and a letter to a friend.

Letter on Eve of Suicide.

"If you think of us in the future," the letter stated, "remember we will be asleep together, and what is better than sleep after a long day's work."

Good was the author of several books which are meritorious but not popular, and his wife wrote under the name of Furze Walsh. Good finally was reduced to the position of a publishers' reader and later was started in business as a tobaccoist, but the venture was a failure.

The tragedy of the Goods recalls the death just the other day of Francis Thompson, a poet, who, after being rescued from selling matches and holding horses on the Strand, rose to prosperity by writing poems of worldwide admiration and died with little of this world's goods.

OPERA SINGER A SUICIDE.

Berlin, Nov. 26.—Theodore Bertram, the opera singer, committed suicide at Baireuth yesterday.

He had been despondent and melancholy since the death of his wife, herself an opera singer, in the wreck of the steamship Berlin, which went down off the Hook of Holland on Feb. 21 last. No other reason except his grief is known for the suicide.

The first recognition of Bertram's genius came through his rendering of the role of Wotan in Wagner's "Tannhauser."

hauser." All of the greater successes of his later career also were scored in Wagnerian roles.

The sea accident which caused the death of Bertram's wife also cost the life of eighteen other members of the German opera company, which had just concluded its season at Covent Garden, London.

Are Fat Women Always Married to Thin Men?

"Watch the four o'clock promenade on Fifth Avenue New York, or along Rotten Row in London and you will be struck by the circumstance that every fat woman is accompanied by a thin man, while every fat man has a lean and usually tall woman by his side," said a world-renowned form and beauty specialist recently to a gathering of artists and newspaper men in a Broadway cafe. "The effect is grotesque and every artistic sense is offended by the lopsided, top-heavy, overbalanced appearance of such a couple. It is an entirely unneeded offense, too, on the part of the fat person, at least," continued the beauty expert, "for getting rid of an excess of fat is a very simple matter. Most people think they must punish themselves with a slim diet and lots of hard, distasteful work called exercise in order to do so, but that is a mistake. As a matter of fact, there is a simple mixture of common, wholesome, harmless household remedies that if put together in the right quantities and taken in teaspoonful quantities after each meal, or at bedtime, will take off from half a pound to one pound a day from either man or woman without causing wrinkles, interfering with their diet in any shape or form, or requiring any gymnastics to help it out. This mixture consists of 1/2 oz. Marmolade or Fluid Extract Cascara, 1/2 oz. and 1/4 oz. Syrup Simplex. The Marmolade should be obtained in an original unbroken 1/2 oz. package and mixed with the other two ingredients by shaking the three together in a large bottle, at home. Most fat people never heard of this effective home recipe, however, and so, thinking they must diet and exercise to get thin (which is not true and not good for them either) they will do neither and so continue fat and porpoiselike, a travesty and caricature of the human form divine." One fat newspaper writer in the group was seen taking notes, however, and the chances are this paragraph is the result.

Miss Elvyn's Modesty is One of Her Charms

One of the most favorable comments which is bestowed upon the young pianist, Miss Myrtle Elvyn, who is to give a recital in this city in the Majestic theater on Dec. 3, concerns her modesty of manner and lack of egotism. One writer says of the young lady's five years' absence abroad: "The five years have done much for Miss Elvyn. They have developed her from a bright eyed, slender slip of a girl into a young woman, tall, finely proportioned and of unusual beauty. She delighted the eye the moment she appeared, and she gratified those who had wished her well when she departed for Europe, for she showed by her bearing, by her attitude toward her work, and by her way of receiving the approval accorded her that the years abroad and the success scored there had not spoiled her. There was a girlish modesty and simplicity of manner which instantly won favor for her, and the slight nervousness shown while on the stage and her evident joyousness at the favorable progress of the evening were so a part of youth and girlishness that they charmed and pleased far more than could have any display of prima donna airs or diva poses."

BAR MORMON MISSIONARIES.

Hamburg, Nov. 25.—The police of this city have been informed that 37 mormon missionaries sailed from Boston on the Cymric recently with the intention of proselytizing in Germany. It has been decided that any German subjects among these missionaries will be allowed in the country, but the others will be refused admittance.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription." The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder—curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrh, dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or incurable stages of these affections it is often successful in effecting a cure.

"The Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of the class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to woman only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines. The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pills, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

PIGEON PIE.

Clean and wipe four pigeons. Split and put in a saucepan with enough good broth to nearly cover. Simmer gently until tender. Take out and remove some of the larger bones. Cut the hearts and livers into bits. Have ready four hard boiled eggs sliced, butter a deep pudding dish, and fill with alternate layers of the pigeons, eggs and minced hearts and livers. Season with salt and pepper.

Make a gravy with one tablespoonful each of butter and flour, and one and one-half cupfuls of the broth. Season with salt and pepper, and pour one-half into the dish. Cover with a layer of good paste, making an incision in the middle of the crust to allow for the escape of steam, and ornament the edges of the pie with braids, leaves or rolls of the crust. Bake for one hour in a moderately hot oven. When nearly done, brush over the top of the pie with the yolk of an egg beaten with a little milk. Serve hot with baked potatoes, and the rest of the gravy.

Sunday Evening

Many persons do not feel like eating a regular supper but need something light and wholesome to sustain them. Elijah's Manna seems the most convenient and appetizing food obtainable.

It is made from white corn, rolled between steel rollers into light fragil flakes and toasted to a light brown which makes it very easy digested and gives the peculiar, appetizing flavour.

Pour out what you want and with the addition of good cream you get a dish so deliciously tempting as to create a desire for more. And don't stop with one dish if you want more.

Sold by grocers in two sizes—Pony size 5c; large Family size 15c.

There's enough in a small package for a convincing "taste" for the whole family, but you'd better take home a full size family package (for over Sunday) of the most deliciously flavoured flake food known.

Be sure the food comes to the table crisp. When package is allowed to remain open the moisture of the air makes it tough. In such case insist that it be dried in an oven as per directions on pkg., then it is delicious.

S.S.S. MADE FROM ROOTS AND HERBS A SAFE AND RELIABLE BLOOD PURIFIER

In the time of our forefathers the forests and fields were the only laboratories from which they could procure their medicines. They searched out and compounded the different roots, herbs and barks into remedies, many of which have been handed down to succeeding generations, and continuously used with satisfactory results. Among the very best of these old time preparations is S. S. S., a medicine made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, in such combination as to make it the greatest of all blood purifiers. This absolute vegetable purity of S. S. S. makes it the one medicine that may be used without fear of harmful results in any way. Most blood medicines on the market contain mercury, opium, or some other strong mineral. These act with bad effect on the system, upsetting the stomach, interfering with the digestion, affecting the bowels, and when used for a prolonged period of time often cause salivation. No such effects ever result from the use of S. S. S., and it may be taken by children as safely as by older people. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, and all other troubles caused by impure or poisoned blood, S. S. S. is a perfect remedy. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities, humors or unhealthy matter, and makes the blood pure and rich. It eliminates every particle of the taint of inherited blood trouble, purifies and strengthens the weak, deteriorated blood, and establishes the foundation for good health. S. S. S. is Nature's Blood Purifier, and its many years of successful service, with a steadily increasing demand for it, is the best evidence of its value in all blood troubles. Book on the blood and any medical advice free of charge.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS TO PLAY EXHIBITION IN THIS CITY

President Murphy Has Fort
Wayne on Itinerary—
Donlin Signs.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 26.—President C. W. Murphy, of the Chicago Nationals, has commenced arrangements for the home stretch of the champions' training tour. It is a four-city tour, beginning at St. Paul, Minn., on Nov. 27, and ending at St. Louis, Mo., on Dec. 1. The tour will include St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis and Chicago.

After the Cubs leave West Baden about March 15, they will put in most of the time before they leave for St. Paul, Minn., and other southern cities, but no headquarters have been secured for a definite stay. Those White Sox will be the touring kids next spring. President Comiskey said yesterday that in all probability his former world-champion would leave here March 1 for Los Angeles, Cal., to begin their preliminary training. Teams on the coast will be taken on for a few contests, after which the Sox will hit the Southern Pacific trail, stopping off at San Antonio and New Orleans. After playing a series in the Crescent City the trip north will be started, stops being made at the same old towns along the Father of Waters.

The long jaunt west will hang fire until answered by the Chicago Cubs, who have been asked for. Donlin will be back in center field for the New York Giants next season. He wired from Champaign, Ill., to a Chicago friend yesterday that he just signed. Manager McGraw having submitted a fancy contract which couldn't be turned down.

SCHULZ CHOSEN LEADER OF MICHIGAN TEAM IN 1908

Fort Wayne Boy Recipient of Greater Honors in Foot Ball.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 26.—The return to college next year of "Germany" Schulz, the Wolverine center, was clinched last evening when his teammates on the varsity football eleven elected him captain of the 1908 team. There was no opposition to his candidacy. The big fellow was immensely liked with the team and said when the poll closed: "You can count on me being right here next fall."

Schulz will have Left Tackle Casey, Quarter Back Wassund, Half Backs Miller and Allard and Full Backs Loell and Watkins of this year's team to begin with, besides Benbrook, Flanagan, Riley, Peterson and Crumpecker of the reserves. Captain Magoffin, in bidding farewell to his teammates, handed out the "24" to these men. Schulz, Graham, Riggins, Child, Embs, Loell, Watkins, Casey, Hammond, Rummy, Wassund and Allard. Roy Miller, who was in the last few minutes of the Penn game, did not get the decoration.

WAUSEKA NAMED CAPTAIN.

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 26.—When the Carlisle Indians arrived at home a new captain had been named to supplant Lobo. This was Emil Wauseka of Oklahoma, who was elected on the train, and who will take charge of the team next year. While the usual minor injuries are reported, no man in the squad was seriously hurt, and the condition of the team is excellent.

NOTRE DAME RESUMES PRACTICE.

Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 26.—Football practice has been resumed at the school of the regulars except Ryan, McDonald, Burke and Paine took part. The practice was short and consisted of the running of signals. Bertling appeared at quarter and other shifts were made in the line and back field. Hardly a word was heard from the St. Vincent College team Thursday at Chicago.

What is Life?

Life is a Mysterious Something, No Man Knows What Its Length and Character Depend Upon the Condition of the Nerves.

FREDERICK RAUH.

The human organs are part of a machine. The nerves furnish power to operate them. The nerves make the stomach strong to digest food, the liver active to secrete bile, the kidneys energetic to filter out waste. Strong nerves make a strong healthy body.

When anything goes wrong with the body or its organs, it must be made right by the nerves. Drugs do not directly cure disease. They only increase the disease action that the nerves may repair the damage. When the nerves are strong, they nurse the sick back to life without the aid of drugs. This is commonly called "throwing off" disease. When the nerves are not strong enough to repair the damage with the aid of medicine, doctors say "the case is incurable."

It is all true, and there is no doubt of it. Isn't it a wise policy to supply the nerves with what they need? Nervous matter is a chemical composition. In health, it contains definite proportions of water, albumen, fat, osmogen and phosphorus. When the proportions change, trouble begins and will not end until they are restored.

Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer contains just what weak nerves need. It is not a germ killer, or a faith cure, and neither does it perform miracles, although many of those cured by it declare that it does. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer is just what its name indicates, a Nerve Builder. It makes the nerves strong and healthy by supplying what they lack. Its good effect is felt with the first dose and continues until the nerves are restored to health.

Considered Remarkable. Frederick Rauh, Elliot, Pa., says: "I consider your Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer one of the world's great wonders. I had been failing in health for several years, growing worse, until I had to give up work two years ago. Since that time I have tried with the doctors and took up the advertised nerve cures, until I became discouraged, because they did not help me. I finally tried your Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer, and less than one bottle of it put me on my feet, so that I could return to work. I consider it remarkable that such a small quantity of the medicine could accomplish so much good. It certainly is a wonder."

Mrs. Matilda McCracken, of Chester, Ohio, says: "For eighteen years I suffered with nervous prostration, so severe that the least noise or excitement would prostrate me. This was aggravated by sick headache, lasting for days; sleep was impossible, my appetite could get no relief. C. W. Eaton, druggist, recommended Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer. It proved to be simply my headache was overcome, refreshing sleep comforted my exhausted nerves, and my general health continued until I was completely cured."

GARY FORMALLY TAKES HER PLACE AMONG THE CITIES

Makes Notable Entry Into the Indiana Sisterhood of Municipalities.

Gary, Ind., Nov. 26.—Gary, the magic city of steel, grown in eighteen months from a windswept sand dune to 12,000 inhabitants, took its place in the world of big affairs last night. Its formal entry into the list of leading municipalities of Indiana was marked by a banquet at the New Gary hotel, which was opened for the occasion. The streets of the city were decorated and lighted by electric arches.

Governor J. Frank Hanly and E. J. Bullington, president of the Illinois Steel company, a part of the United States Steel corporation, which built the city, were the guests of honor. From beginning to end the banquet was one song of praise and promise for the new city. President H. S. Norton, of the Gary Commercial club, who presided at the opening, prophesied that in two years the city would have a population of 50,000. Mr. Norton introduced Homer J. Carr, editor of a local paper, who acted as toastmaster.

Hanly Warns Against Graft. Governor Hanly was introduced by Thomas E. Knott, president of the board of trade and several clubs, who bailed the governor as a "future president of the United States." The governor did not follow up this presidential boom, but contented himself with telling the citizens of Gary what an opportunity they had to build a model city. "You will have material wealth in abundance," he said. "The thing you need to learn is uprightness in municipal government. The shame of our country has been the shame of our cities. The graft and corruption that have been unearthed in St. Louis, San Francisco, Milwaukee, Philadelphia and New York show that our greatest weakness is in our municipal affairs."

State Senator A. J. Bowser referred to the financial flurry. "Out of a clear sky the thunder came, spreading terror to every one," said the senator. "You are welcome to think as you wish about the cause. For my part, I think we have a plot on the deck of this ship of state who has been using the searchlight and discovered pirates on our seas, and called out the warning."

Say. Congressman E. D. Crumpacker, of the Tenth district, spoke of the needs of a harbor for Gary. Referring to the plans of the steel corporation Mr. Bullington said: "We came here because we needed elbow room. We are not in it for the franchise. We have done our best to keep land sharks away from the city."

Other speakers were S. E. Kiser, H. G. Brown, president of Valparaiso university; F. E. Delano, president of the Wabash railroad; Wilbur D. Nesbitt, George W. Ross and H. F. McCracken.

CITY BREVITIES.

C. C. Wade, of St. Paul, Minn., is in the city to spend Thanksgiving with his brother, Rev. C. U. Wade, of West Jefferson street. The visitor is manager of the Lawyers' Co-operative Union at St. Paul.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After ducking for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well." TWO GOOD INSTITUTES FOR FARMERS ARE CONDUCTED Sessions at Nine Mile and Hometown Result in Much Good.

Under the active and efficient efforts of Frank Hubler, chairman of the farmers' institutes of Allen county, two very interesting and instructive institutes were held the past week.

The one at Nine Mile, in Lafayette township, on Friday, Nov. 22d, was a decided success, both as it regarded the attendance and in interest taken in the work.

E. C. Martindale, state speaker, from Hancock county, was present and spoke in the forenoon on "Buying and Rearing Cattle for Feeding."

In the afternoon Mr. Martindale spoke on the subject, "How Clover Improves the Soil," and in the evening he also spoke to a large audience on the subject, "The Boy."

All of these addresses were well taken and full of good, practical instruction.

Everett Hubler spoke in the afternoon on the subject, "Corn Improvement by Selecting and Grading."

This talk brought out much discussion and many good things were given to the audience.

Albert Bush, of Whitley county, gave an interesting talk on "Fruit Growing."

In the evening Rev. Schrock, of Fort Wayne, spoke on the subject, "Education for the Farm; Its Importance and How to Secure It."

Hometown institute. At Hometown, on Saturday, Nov. 23d, there was a smaller attendance, but the afternoon session was full of spirited discussion.

The following subjects were treated: "Selecting, Storing and Testing Seed Corn" and "Preparation of Soil, Planting and Cultivating Corn," by Mr. Martindale; "Reclaiming the Old Farm," by H. D. Meads, and in the evening "Things We May Teach the Children About Agriculture," by Everett Hubler and "Children," by Rev. Bright.

Deep interest was taken in all the sessions and permanent local organizations were secured at both places, many ladies taking an active part.

Mr. Hubler is making a heroic effort to help all the farmers of the county.

Four other institutes are to be held during the winter.

S. F. BOWSER IS CHOSEN AS HOPE HOSPITAL PRESIDENT

Great Work of Past Year Reviewed at Annual Meeting.

S. F. Bowser was elected president of Hope hospital for the ensuing year at the annual meeting Monday evening. All the members of the old board of trustees were re-elected, and other officers chosen were as follows: Vice president—Charles B. Pritch. Secretary—Dr. W. O. Gross. Treasurer—J. B. Franke. Isidor Lehman presided as chairman of the meeting which was held in the hospital parlors, and the ten trustees elected for the ensuing three years were C. S. Bash, C. A. Dunkelberg, Charles McCulloch, J. W. White, C. C. Schlatter, M. F. Kang, Isidor Lehman, S. F. Bowser, G. E. Bursley and John C. Peters.

Reports of Mrs. Fourtner as superintendent of the hospital and principal of the training school covered the work of the past year, and showed that the institution had done the greatest twelve-month work in its history. Treasurer Franke also submitted his report. It was decided that owing to the lateness of the season and other intervening conditions to defer the building of the nurse's dormitory until spring.

Memorial to S. B. Bond. Messrs. S. M. Foster, G. E. Bursley and J. F. W. Meyer, a committee appointed to prepare a suitable memorial to the late Stephen B. Bond, reported the following, which was adopted:

Your committee appointed to prepare and submit a suitable expression of this association regarding the death of Mr. S. B. Bond, begs leave to report the following:

In the death of Mr. Stephen B. Bond Hope hospital has lost one of its oldest and most devoted friends. For many years he gave to it freely in money, time and personal effort. His interest not only in this hospital but in every good work was thoroughly unselfish and sprang from his earnest desire to be of service to his fellow men and to bear his full share of the burdens of the community. He never shirked a duty and was ready at all times to do even more than his part in whatever had to be done. It can be said of him more truthfully than it can be said of most men that in every cause which aimed to relieve distress and help the unfortunate, he was always not only ready and willing but foremost in the work. By reason of his unselfishness his life was an inspiration to those associated with him. In all things, both great and small, at all times, in all places he "kept up his end" in a manner that might be well emulated by men everywhere. Without a shadow of pretense or ostentation he went through life looking for opportunities to do good, and his death has left vacant in the community a place hard to fill.

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organs themselves, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. WILL SEEK ADVICE FROM FAMOUS CHICAGO ENGINEER

Waterway Committee Held First Session Monday Evening.

Within a few days Messrs. P. A. Randall, C. S. Bash and Frank B. Taylor, representing the Fort Wayne committee which has in charge the effort for a deep waterway connecting Lake Erie and Lake Michigan by way of this city, will go to Chicago for a consultation with Mr. Cooley, chief engineer of the Chicago drainage canal. It is expected that Mr. Cooley, who is a famous engineer, will be able to give the Fort Wayne committee much information and advice which will be valuable in its preliminary.

There was a large attendance at the first meeting of the committee held at the Commercial club rooms Monday evening, and genuine interest is manifested in the big project. Addresses were made by Mr. Randall, C. S. Bash, Charles McCulloch, Congressman Gilman, J. C. F. Sprinkle, J. M. Barrett, C. L. Oids, R. B. Hanna, H. C. Paul, S. M. Foster and others, and all of them had a word of encouragement to offer. An interesting feature of the evening were the talks by Frank Leverett, of Ann Arbor, and Frank B. Taylor, of this city, demonstrating the special advantages of the route by way of the Maumee river, Fort Wayne and Rochester to reach Lake Michigan with a canal that will be of great utility in the transportation of freight.

To meet preliminary expenses, the committee voted an assessment of $1 on each of the more than one hundred members. Later a large number of sub-committees are to be named.

The Adams Township Bird and Game Protective association has adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, This association has learned with deep interest of a project proposed by the commercial and industrial interests of Fort Wayne, having for its object the improvement of the Maumee river so as to make it navigable for lake-going steamships, which would give Fort Wayne and the other cities and towns on its banks and the country adjacent all the advantages enjoyed by lake ports, and believing this local project to be but a first step in what may properly be called a national affair, namely, the construction of a system of canals which would connect Lake Erie with lower Lake Michigan, and which in connection with the New York state canal would give the exportable products of the great west a direct outlet through our own territory to the seaboard, and

Whereas, This project is in line with an established policy of our government, recently given renewed impetus, that of improving the harbors and navigable streams of this country and constructing canals as connecting links, and believing the accomplishment of this project would prove of incalculable benefit to the various interests of the great central west alike, namely, the agricultural, industrial and commercial, in providing better shipping facilities and lower freight rates on the product of the farm and factory and on coal, lumber, etc., and believing our association representative of the great agricultural interests of this section and therefore qualified to anticipate their wishes and bespeak their support it is hereby

Resolved, That this association give this project its unqualified approval and pledge its active support to any proper action taken by the waterway committee appointed by Chairman Randall and headed by the Hon. Robert S. Taylor, looking up to the accomplishment of the same.

Pleasant Social Events at Catholic Academies.

The girls of the '09-10 classes at St. Augustine's academy were hostesses for the members of the class of '08 at the academy Monday afternoon. First prize was won by Miss Bertha Byanski and the consolation award went to Miss Clara Schone. Later a three-course luncheon was given in the dining room, where the same color scheme was carried out, and a table in the center of the dining room was occupied by the clergy. The Misses Marie Nolan and Marie Kelly will be the graduates in the academic department next spring.

At St. Catherine's academy last evening the girls of the classes of '09-10 gave a musical and literary program in honor of the class of '08, and the pleasant event was attended by the clergy, the parents of the graduates and members of the alumni association. Fort Wayne Physician Installs New Apparatus for Curing Tuberculosis.

That tuberculosis is a curable disease is now a firmly established fact. That a change of climate is not essential to a cure is another established fact. That the new Kray-Ozonation treatment is superior to climatic influence as a factor in its cure is another established fact, conceded by the best authority of today. Within the past year many physicians have proven the truth of these statements and are curing cases that failed to respond to climatic and medicinal treatment. Dr. Wells, of this city, has installed in his office at 229 E. Berry street, the best apparatus that money can buy. He is authority for the statement that he believes from the experience he has had, and that of other physicians using the same method that he can cure any case of tuberculosis that can be cured by change of climate or other methods. The treatment is not heralded as a cure all but as a rational, scientific means of purifying and invigorating the blood to such an extent that it is enabled to overcome the effects of the tubercle bacilli. The doctor will be glad to explain his method of action to any one interested.

H. H. TAYLOR PROMOTED.

Wabash Traveling Freight Agent Gets New Office.

News of the promotion of H. H. Taylor from traveling freight agent in this territory to general agent at Danville for the Wabash has been received at the local offices, the appointment to become effective December 1. George N. Thomas, freight agent at Lafayette for the company, will succeed Mr. Taylor as traveling freight agent. The general agency at Danville was only recently created to meet the demand for such an office. It is quite a responsible position, is accompanied by a comfortable salary and is considered quite a nice promotion for Mr. Taylor. He has been traveling freight agent in this territory for the past two years and comes to Fort Wayne every week and sometimes two or three times a week. He is quite popular with the shippers of the city, whom he aims to call upon at least twice a month, and they will be glad to know that the position he is to take is one of promotion. No announcement has been made of the successor to Mr. Thomas at Lafayette.

FISCAL YEAR ENDED.

Federation of Labor Rounds Twelve Prosperous Months.

Monday night the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor closed the fiscal year and at the meeting in December new officers will be elected and the federation will start upon another year in its work for the toilers. The past year has been characterized by the most rapid growth of labor organizations in the history of the federation and much of the credit is due to the officials at the head of this body as well as those who have charge of the individual unions. President Henry C. Hoeltje announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election, believing that the honors should be passed around and that one term was sufficient for one man. This sentiment is also entertained by some of the other officials of the federation and it is quite likely that the new roster will contain several names not heretofore in it. The Meat Cutters presented a new list of delegates, the personnel of the body being J. D. Redding, C. J. Noll, E. J. Kynaston, George Bender and James Hickox. The Meat Cutters' union is two years old and is one of the best of the young organizations. The announcement was made that the arbitration committee had offered its services to the striking pressmen, with a view of bringing the difficulties to a close. It was reported that the prospects of a settlement were good.

INSPECTING RAILS.

Pennsylvania Officials Making Trip Over Line.

E. G. Ericson, assistant chief engineer of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, is making an inspection of the rails this week and today passed over the Western division east-bound. He arrived in this city on a special train at 1 o'clock and remained a short time. Supt. J. B. McKim, Engineer of Maintenance of Way F. M. Graham and the supervisors on the Western division accompanied Mr. Ericson.

NICKEL PLATE TIME CARD.

Next Sunday, December 1, the Nickel Plate will put a new time card into effect. The chief change will be in No. 1, the westbound passenger train, which under present schedule passes through this city at 11:55. Under the new time card it will arrive here at 12:20 o'clock, twenty-five minutes later. There are a few other changes, but none so great as the one mentioned. Following will be the new time card:

—Westbound—
No. 1.....12:20 p. m.
No. 3.....4:35 p. m.
No. 5.....2:15 a. m.
—Eastbound—
No. 2.....3:05 p. m.
No. 4.....8:00 p. m.
No. 6.....2:00 a. m.

There will be considerable change in the running time of a number of the freight trains also.

ANTICIPATE GOOD TIME.

Loyal lodge No. 31, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, anticipates one of the happiest times of its existence at the queen hall tomorrow night when it will give its thirtieth annual ball. The committee of arrangements, which is composed of Mrs. Margaret Potts, Mrs. Mary Carpenter, Mrs. Hannah Pink, Mrs. Hettie Haddock and Mrs. Ella Foster, has been at work with unceasing energy for the past week and every detail looking towards the comfort and pleasure of the guests has been attended to. The hall decorations, which are elaborate, are being looked after by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Obenchain, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thibolt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Logan and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer St. John. Mrs. Henry Weber, assisted by the ladies of the auxiliary, will receive the guests.

THREE DAYS' SHUT DOWN.

When the Western Gas works closes tomorrow evening it will be with the intention of remaining closed until Monday morning, when business will be resumed as usual. The financial stringency is having its effects upon this establishment in common with other industries. One of the officials of the Western Gas works said this morning that as soon as the banks opened their vaults, business would improve. There is plenty of work in sight and normal conditions will immediately follow the release of the locked up currency. In the belief that all of the men will be needed shortly, the company has adopted the plan of working the full force short time instead of suspending some of the employees.

BECOMES PASSENGER FIREMAN.

W. S. Eggeman, a Pennsylvania engineman, who had charge of engine work at Plymouth for four or five years, has been transferred to the passenger service and tonight will take his place as fireman in the cab with Engineer Joseph Leeper. They will run between this city and Chicago on trains 15 and 8. Mr. Eggeman is a son of Assessor William Eggeman and is a Fort Wayne boy. Before going to Plymouth he was firing on the road several years.

BECOMES A SWITCHMAN.

This morning Yardmaster Denny Hayes, of the Wabash, hired F. J. Young to take the place in the switching force vacated by George Gordon a few days ago. Mr. Young was formerly employed as a road brakeman on the Pennsylvania.

GOES TO PASSENGER SERVICE.

A. G. Krock has received a nice promotion on the Pennsylvania. He is a brakeman and has just been transferred from the freight to the passenger service, with one of the good runs between this city and Chicago. Mr. Krock has been in the employ of the company several years.

SHIPPED ENGINE TO LAMOTT.

This morning a 16x36 Corliss engine was loaded at the Bass works for shipment to Lamott, Mo., where it will become a part of a steam plant of the T aylor Engineering company.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Master Car Builder J. A. Graham is in Hamlet today on business for the Pennsylvania.

John O'Day, of the Pennsylvania shops, is minus four nice chickens. His coop was raided last night.

Chief Clerk W. L. Wilt is in Chicago today in the interest of the Pennsylvania motive power department.

Machinist Earl Nestel, who was injured last week, resumed work this morning in the Pennsylvania shops.

Charles Muhlenbruck, of the Pennsylvania shops, and his wife will go to Chicago tomorrow to visit relatives.

Chris Martin, who had an injured back, resumed his duties in the packing room at the Electric works this morning.

Supt. M. L. Reynolds, Trainmaster W. D. Stearns and Chief Dispatcher J. H. Tucker, of the Lake Shore, were in the city yesterday.

Blacksmith George Shafer took a position at the Wabash shops this morning. Calvin McMillen has also taken a position at the Wabash shops.

The general boiler foreman of the Pennsylvania Northwest system did not complete their business last night as they expected and held other meetings today.

Machinist Michael Creigh, of the Pennsylvania shops, is laying off on account of the wedding of his son, Stephen, mentioned elsewhere in this paper.

Supt. B. H. Hudson, of the G. R. & L., returned from the north last night. With a party of friends Mr. Hudson was hunting two weeks in northern Michigan.

John Strawbridge, who has been employed in machine shops in Rochester, N. Y., for a number of months, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Strawbridge, of 1019 East Wayne street.

Tomorrow Passenger Brakeman I. F. Rodenbaugh and Switchman Samuel Bender, of the Pennsylvania, with the members of their families will go to Leo to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Garrett.

J. Flaugh and E. E. Murray, Pennsylvania enginemen, are sick and off duty. The following shopmen are also off duty on account of sickness: L. J. Meyers, H. H. Hoppe, Charles Fries and C. P. Littlefield.

W. H. Essig, assistant shipping clerk at the Pennsylvania car shops, and his wife will go to Van Wert tomorrow to spend Thanksgiving day.

Foreman J. A. Foster resumed his duties in the Pennsylvania air brake room this morning. He had been visiting relatives in Chicago, Hobart and Valparaiso.

P. F. Landy, gang foreman at the Pennsylvania erecting shop, who was recently offered a position with the Erie at Susquehanna, Pa., has gone to that city to look into the proposition.

Henry Brudi, Nickel Plate operator at New Haven, is very sick in one of the hospitals in this city. Mr. Brudi was employed by the Wabash several years before he took employment with the Nickel Plate.

Yesterday Miss Edna Hyde, one of the factory girls injured at Lima several weeks ago by being run over by some cars, received a purse of $100, which was contributed by the business men of Lima upon solicitation of Miss Pauline Williams.

J. M. McVoy, a machinist who recently took a position in the Pennsylvania shops, resigned this morning and with his family will return to the old home in Dayton, Ohio. The change is made on account of his baby, who has been sick ever since the family resided in Fort Wayne.

Last night Mrs. Christina Nebe arrived from Mexico and will spend the winter with her brother, Machinist Dick Falconer, of the Wabash shops, and other relatives. Mr. Nebe, who has been engaged in mining work for some months, will resume work on a railroad, operations in the mines he was connected with having been temporarily suspended. He is a conductor.

For the first time in twelve years, the blacksmith department of the Bass Foundry and Machine works is running upon a nine hour work day schedule. The men employed on the "floor" riveting and doing other work in the boiler shop are also on a nine hour schedule, but the men operating the machinery in the boiler shop are still working ten hours a day. The working schedule in the foundry and machine shop has not been changed.

Pennsylvania engine 7285 went upon a little trip on its own account last night and did not stop until it was standing at an angle of 45 degrees with its nose resting on the floor of the turntable. The engine was "dead," having just been taken from the shops, and when the hostler at the pit gave it a shove with another engine, it did not stop as expected and went in the pit. Wreck Foreman George Ebner and his men went to the rescue and in an hour had the engine back on the rails, not in the least damaged.

Some people, unknowingly, use up more energy digesting heavy foods taken in excess, under the false impression that the "more they eat the more they can do," than they exert in doing their regular work.

Why not economize energy?

It means the capacity to accomplish more, and that means more money. Change off from a heavy meat and pan-cake breakfast to a dish of Grape-Nuts and cream, a soft boiled egg or two, and note how you can get through the morning's work and have a lot of energy left over—a thing that is a pleasure of itself.

Grape-Nuts contains all the food elements from wheat and barley for "economizing energy."

Saved From an Operation by a Half Box of the Pyramid Pile Cure —You Can Try It Free.

"I cannot help writing to you about your wonderful cure for piles. When I wrote to you for a sample I was thinking of going through an operation. But I thought I would give your remedies a trial. I am so happy that I did for I am cured and only used half a box. I write this for humanity's sake. I had piles ever since the year 1891. I wish you would publish my name through the Bulletin paper for I am well known in the marine corps. Use my name the best way you know how. Thanking you for your good advice. Yours truly, Cleophas Forte, Marine Barracks, U. S. N. Training Station, San Francisco, Cal."

You may be suffering in the same way.

Just send your name and address to Pyramid Drug Co., 39 Pyramid Building, Marshall, Mich., and receive free by return mail the trial package in a plain wrapper.

Hello, 174 and 349.

Montgomery and Monroe Streets.

FALL FESTIVAL OPENS

With Large Attendance at St. Peter's Church.

In the presence of a large number of people the second annual fall festival of St. Peter's Catholic church opened last night under most favorable circumstances. The opening address was made by Mayor William J. Hosey.

The booths were beautifully decorated with oak leaves and numerous red, white and blue incandescent lamps and judging from the volume of business carried on by them last night large sums of money will be realized from the sale of the articles displayed.

Among the amusement features will be found an electric piano on exhibition by the Jacobs music store, which will delight its hearers with all of the latest selections.

Thanksgiving supper will be served in the dining-room from 4 to 8 o'clock by the ladies of the congregation.

A CARD.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the serious results from a cold. STRICH & ZEIDLER

To whom many letters, praising their instruments, are addressed, have just received a strong endorsement of the Strich & Zeidler piano from N. J. Rembusch, of No. 615 Oregon street, Lafayette, Ind., who is an expert piano tuner and repairer as well as a dealer. Mr. Rembusch, who has handled the Strich & Zeidler instruments for several years, wrote as follows:

"Dear Friends: To say that it is a pleasure to write to you, after receiving such a fine instrument, is only putting it in a mild way. I never touched such an instrument before. It is absolutely perfect, or, the better way to describe it is, that, the best of brain and material is the result of such a piano. The design is beautiful in the extreme. The material is of the best. The workmanship is superb. The scale is the evenest scale that a person ever heard. It sings like a bird (I mean by that, the sustaining qualities and beautiful tone.) The action is adjusted and regulated perfectly, and the finish is equal to any mirror."

"I am not partial to any instrument, but having worked as tuner and professional musician of the best standing for many years, I feel it my duty to acknowledge the merits of such a fine instrument."

RETAILERS PROTEST IN STRONG TERMS BUT LOSE OUT

The Meat Ordinance Goes Through Council—Municipal Notes.

Although the retail dealers generally protested in a set of very strong resolutions against the passage of the meat ordinance by the city council the measure went through last night and is now up to the mayor for his signature, which he will probably affix, as he practically agreed to do so if revenue was provided for to carry out its provisions.

There was an attempt to reduce the wholesalers' license fee from $50 to $25, but this eventually failed and the measure went through in the form agreed upon by the council committee of the whole. The ordinance will be published in detail in the regular council proceedings.

Clement W. Edgerton and his stone fence came in for a bit of a roast when the committee appointed to have him remove it reported that it was unable to do so and followed the report with a tart resolution. Mr. Edgerton says he will cover the stones with vines and make the people who are kicking ashamed of themselves.

The routine business consisted of a report from the fees and salaries committee on the ordinances fixing the increased salaries of city hall attaches and it went back to the committee because the stationmaster had been overlooked in the distribution of advanced pay. The mayor announced his approval of appropriations of $250 for sewer repairs, $500 for maintenance of street repairs and $1,000 for the parks. He also approved the Maumee river resolution.

Ordinances were passed approving the contract with Albert Pence for laying pipe in Fort park and appropriating $1,000 from the general fund for street cleaning. The finance committee recommended the purchase of an addressograph asked for by County Treasurer-elect Scheiman. It must not cost over $400.

Municipal Notes.
The Home Telephone and Telegraph company has filed a protest with the board of public works against the use of its poles for hanging guy or suspension wires.

The city hall will be closed all day tomorrow and there will be no meeting of the board of public works tomorrow night.

The Gamewell police alarm system was shown to the members of the board of public works last night and the mayor.

The fact that the franchise of the Fort Wayne and Springfield Traction company was amended and passed by the council without having gone back to the board of public works is being used against the concern in its objection to the clearance proposed by the city and railroad company in elevating the tracks at Calhoun street. This company has insisted all along on a greater clearance than is practicable.

GARRETT NEWS.

[Correspondence of The Sentinel.]
AFTER WOMAN'S PLACE.

Half a Dozen Men at Garrett Anxious to Be Postmaster.

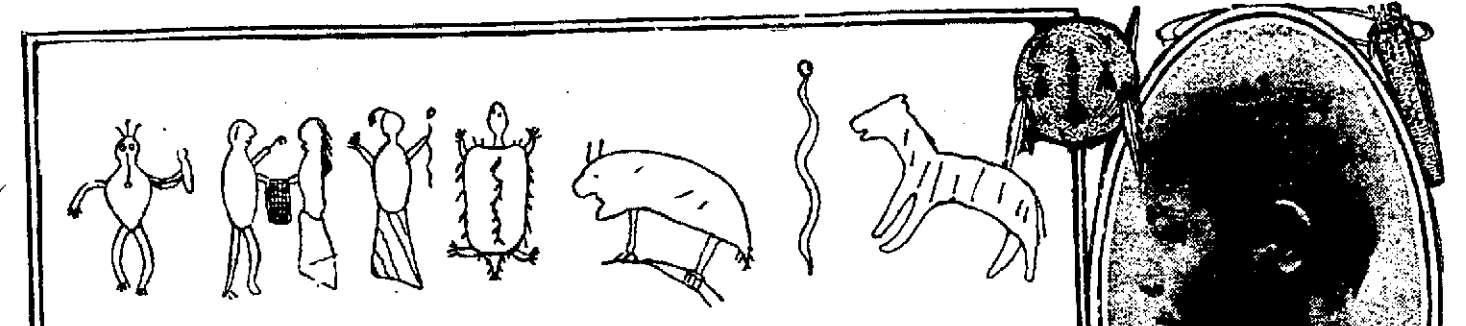

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 27.—On account of her marriage to Mr. Carl E. Talbert, the assistant trainmaster of the B. & O. at this point, Miss Amanda Sullivan, who has held the office of postmaster here for the last seven years, has resigned, the resignation taking effect as soon as her successor is appointed and has qualified and her resignation has put upon Congressman Gilham's "muddle" that will be quite as difficult for him to handle, and be as exciting, no doubt, as was the postoffice squabble at Kendallville several months ago.

Miss Sullivan was married Monday evening at her home in Garrett. It was a private affair, only a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hull, of this city. Immediately thereafter Mr. and Mrs. Talbert left for Chicago on their wedding trip. They will return the first of next week to make their city their home, and Mrs. Talbert will resume her duties at the postoffice, acting as postmaster until her successor has been installed into office.

Miss Sullivan, or as she now is, Mrs. Talbert resigned her position on Monday and already there are six candidates for the appointment, all anxious to jump into her shoes, and the Lord only knows how many more will spring up before the week comes to an end—for there are others whose names did not come to the ears of the Sentinel reporter.

The six republicans who would like to write the title "postmaster" after their signature and draw the salary are Walter Satterfield, the well known furniture man; George Gage, the real estate dealer; Timothy DeBruler, a member of the city council; John Eaton, transfer mail clerk; Harry

Begin to suspect that Prosecutor Nindé should submit his indictments to a competent proof-reader before executing on them.

Mr. Bryan says Mr. Roosevelt is a good democrat in spots. A good many democrats will insist that what Mr. Bryan really meant to say was in spots not in spots.

Signor Enrico Caruso has now been three weeks in New York, and there have been no reports of any monkey-housing in that city. That handsomely embossed certificate of character and the decorations bestowed by the kaiser are evidently being lived up to.

There are remaining to be tried almost one hundred and fifty cases against indicted saloonkeepers. Out of this bunch there surely ought to be opportunity for enough convictions to establish that the Indiana statutes which apply in Posey, Pulaski or any other county can be steamed ahead also in Allen.

Hon. J. Kirby Risk, of Lafayette, is head and front of a new league of democratic clubs in Indiana that, among other things, believes the hide of one T. Tuggart would prove highly ornamental to the back fence. The Lafayette leader is preparing things with such thoroughness and foresight as shall permit no one to say to him if he fails to land the democratic state chairmanship, that he left undone aught that his friends could direct or true desert admonish to bring about a consummation so devoutly to be wished.

NEWSPAPERS RAISE PRICES.

Increased cost of white paper is forcing many publishers of one cent newspapers to raise the prices of their publications. Thus the Free Press and the News, of Detroit, have given notice of an advance from one to two cents, to take effect December 1. The News and the Chronicle, of Perth Amboy, N. J., have made a similar increase. All the newspapers in Joliet, Ill., have jumped their prices from five cents a week to ten cents.

The Indianapolis Morning Star some time ago raised from a penny to 2 cents and will hereafter be fifteen cents a week instead of ten cents for the daily and Sunday editions. A similar raise has been made by the Terre Haute Star and the Muncie Star.

Reports multiply that papers in several of the large cities contemplate advances in price before or at the new year.

In Montreal, Que., La Presse and La Patrie have advanced the price of their special Saturday editions from one cent to two cents.

Appleton, (Wis.) dispatches say every print paper mill and sulphite mill in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan, which means the entire print paper market in the west, will soon be under the control of the International Paper company, of New York.

MONEY SITUATION BETTER.

Eastern financiers in close touch with Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou now express confidence that he will not issue $100,000,000 of treasury notes, but will check delivery before the issue has reached that volume. In his letter on the financial situation to Mr. Cortelyou, on November 18, President Roosevelt approved the issuance of $100,000,000 of three per cent notes, "or as much as you may find necessary." Mr. Cortelyou never has committed himself to the whole amount.

Business conditions have improved to such an extent that it is believed the secretary will not have to use his full resources. The force of the criticism of the issue is making itself felt at the treasury and the white house.

Mr. Cortelyou expresses satisfaction with the reports received at the treasury department from New York, showing that the situation there is much stronger and that it is daily improving, while the same is true of Chicago and various cities in the west and south. He is ultra-conservative in the matter of making predictions. But for this it is believed he might have expressed the opinion today that a corner has been turned and that the outlook now is for a bright future, with an early resumption of cash payments throughout the country.

first organization of its kind in Fort Wayne.

Any boy who carries, handles or sells The Sentinel for profits and who abides by the rules of the organization is eligible to life membership and is entitled to all the benefits of membership in the association. The membership will be divided into two classes—active and graduate. The active members will include all who are actually engaged in carrying, selling or handling The Sentinel, and the graduate or honorary members comprise all who have left this work to engage in other business.

Many Benefits in It.
The association will maintain an employment bureau which will find positions for and recommend those boys who by their observance of the rules and regulations of the association have proven themselves worthy of promotion. It will set aside a certain percentage of the receipts from the sale of papers for defraying the expense of annual outings, picnics, entertainments or other form of amusement decided upon by the proper authorities.

There will be a sick committee to call upon any members of the association who may be sick or in need, and the committee will report such cases of extremity to the president. Membership will be attested by badges and other insignia to indicate that the bearer is actually identified with the progressive organization.

Tomorrow's Program.
The program for the first meeting, to be held Thanksgiving morning at 8:30 o'clock, will be as follows:

Note.—Notwithstanding soaring prices it is possible to serve a beautiful Thanksgiving dinner with the traditional turkey and cranberry sauce, and a modern touch is supplied with the first course of grape fruit, with a frozen dessert and with a distinct novelty in serving the time-honored mince pie. One may rise from the table satisfied, but not surfeited.

Estimated Cost of Principal Materials—Five grape fruit, 50 cents; turkey (from 22 to 24 cents per pound), $2.40; one can of corn, 12 cents; two cups of cranberries, 20 cents; material for two pies, (including meringue), 75 cents; pudding, 75 cents; balance of $1.25 for remainder. This estimate is purposely made a trifle above actual cost, and it will be possible to include some coveted dish.

Grape Fruit.—Halve the fruit and prepare according to previous instruction. A novel touch is given by filling the center with a small mound of scraped maple sugar. This gives an unusual and delicious flavor.

Giblet Stuffing.—Of this recipe Fannie Farmer said: "I have often made giblet gravy, but never before this season have I known of a giblet stuffing. Cook the giblets, heart and liver and chop fine. Reserve the water in which they were cooked, which should furnish two and three-fourths cups of stock. Split sixteen common crackers, butter each half generously, pour over the hot stock and when it is absorbed, add the chopped giblets, season with a teaspoon of salt and six or eight dashes of white pepper. Garnish the turkey with strings of uncooked cranberries and celery tips with paper frills on legs. It goes without saying that the up-to-date cook will have a covered roasting pan for her convenience and to retain the rich juices of the meat. She will also provide a sufficiently large steam plate to enable the host to serve the turkey readily.

Corn Pudding.—A new recipe and very delicious is the following, which should be doubled: Mix two tablespoons of cornstarch with half a cup of sweet milk. Pour this into one pint of hot milk and stir over hot water until thick. Add a tablespoonful of butter, half a can of corn pulp, one teaspoonful of salt, one saltspoonful of pepper and the beaten yolks of three eggs. Bake, surrounded by boiling water, until the center is firm. Whip the whites, lightly sprinkle with salt, to a stiff froth, spread roughly over the top, sprinkle with chopped red peppers and set in a cool oven until the meringue is set. Serve as a vegetable. (The Ladies' World.)

Celery Mayonnaise, Molded.—A most delicious salad and one quite new. Cut crisp, choice celery in inch lengths and split those in bits like knitting needles. Wipe them dry and place on the ice. Beat the yolks of two eggs very stiff and drop in olive oil until you have a cup of mayonnaise, thinning with lemon juice when it grows too thick to beat; season with a teaspoon of salt and one more teaspoon of cayenne. Dissolve one and a half tablespoons of gelatin in a little cold water and steep over a test tube until it is smooth and thin; cool this, beat into the mayonnaise and add the celery (one and one-half cups), put into a smooth, round mold, like a pill, and leave over night. The next day turn it out on a flat dish, surround with white lettuce leaves and pass with each hoping some thin crackers. (Josephine Greiner.)

Frozen Nut Pudding.—This is one of the best relishes of frozen puddings, and since milk is used instead of cream it comes within our stipulated amount. After beating six eggs very light add two cups of sugar and turn into a quart and one-half of scalded milk. Cook to the consistency of a loaf and cut into remove and stir in eight ounces of grated chocolate. When the chocolate is dissolved, strain, chill and freeze. Have three-fourths cup of shaved cherries and three tablespoons of candied citron soaked in a very little juice for two hours, and when the pudding is like thick mush in the freezer, add the fruit with one cup of finely chopped hickory nut meats and two teaspoonfuls of vanilla extract. Finish freezing, pack in a large mold (padding the edges with buttered muslin) and bury in salt and ice to ripen for at least two hours.

Mince Pie with Apple Meringue.—(Doubtless this recipe.) A genuine novelty, but a delicious one, is made thus: Cover a plate with sticky pie crust, and with mince meat and cover with puff paste rolled to paper-like thinness, and bake. When ready to serve cover with a thick apple meringue and place in a cool oven until the meringue is faintly browned.

Apple Meringue.—Peel and grate one large tart apple, sprinkling over it one cup of powdered sugar as it is grated to retain its color. Break into the two egg whites and beat constantly for thirty minutes. (The Ladies' World.)
